IN BUSINESS...FOR BUSINESS

Press Release

DATE.
13th April 2010.

Business Workshops well Attended.

Entrepreneurship Alive and Well.

The recent Business Start Up Workshop held by Gorey Chamber on its premises in Gorey Business Park was a resounding success according to Chamber Executive, Dick White. Speaking on the night White commented “This service is an effort to help and assist would be entrepreneurs to set up in business. We were very pleased at the levels of attendance on the night and would hope to see a number of new businesses start up in the near future”

Hosted by the Chamber, this FREE workshop allows individuals to seek guidance and information prior to starting out into the world of self employment from a panel of professional business people in a one to one confidential environment.

On the night, in excess of ten individual business proposals were discussed with a panel including Ann Colgan and Finbarr O’Donoghue of the Haven Group, Andrew Owen from the Bank of Ireland, Dave Mc Cormack from Safeguard Insurances and Donal Noonan from Doyle and Associates.

Concluding White added “ Its great to see that there is a high level of enthusiasm in the business world and that Entrepreneurship is alive and well in North Wexford. We in Gorey Chamber fully intend to continue offering this service to the public as we feel self employment is a real option into the future”

These workshops are held twice a year, but the Chamber is willing to assist anyone interested in setting up in business on a one to one basis simply by contacting the office on 053 94 84 520.
