Press Release

DATE.

19th April 2010.

Easter Windows are Showstoppers.

Quality High on Business Streets.

Winners Commended.

The Gorey Chamber sponsored ,Easter Window Competition held over the easter break was a showstopper according to Chamber Executive, Dick White. Speaking at the presentation giving, white noted “Gorey Chamber is keen to encourage all business to present the Town in the best possible light and our Easter Window competition is aimed at showcasing what we have on offer”

This year the two week competition was well up to standard and the judging panel, chaired by Eamonn Carter of Gorey School of Art had a difficult task in the selection process. Continuing White added “This year I believe that we had real showstoppers on every street, with a wonderful display of colour, imagination and creativity throughout the town”

This years overall winner was Mrs Bee’s Healthy Options, a health food shop based in Clonattin. Winning shop owner, Rina Beechey, was commended for the time and effort expended on her shops window display which was selected as this year’s winner. Winning connections received the perpetual trophy in addition to a small replica as a keepsake.

In addition the 2010 winner of the Highly Commended section was Niamh O’Sullivan’s boutique, Ruby Rouge, on Esmonde Street, which stopped many passersby on the Town.
