Press Release

DATE.

26th March 2010.

GOREY'S GOLDEN EGG.

Easter Windows on Display.

Gorey Chamber launched Gorey's Golden Egg promotion this week. With the promotion running from the 6th to the 10th of April, the Chamber hopes that the Town will be the ONLY business destination in the county.

In an effort to encourage more people into the town to do business Gorey Chamber through the participating businesses will offer entry into a draw for a free self catering holiday to the winner. With a vast array of business types participating, from Auctioneers, Bankers, Insurance Brokers, Restaurants, to Retailers including fashion, shoes, foodstuffs and cosmetics, the whole town has come together as one to promote Gorey.

The promotion will see all participating business displaying Goreys Golden Egg and offering entry into the draw for the holiday. The draw will take place in the third week of April and the winner will be notified.

In addition, the Chambers Easter Window competition, will be in full swing over the coming weeks with, with judging of the best window being undertaken on Friday the 9th of April.

Chamber Executive commented "Gorey is really putting its best foot forward, the Town is looking great, we are all open for business and everyone is encouraged to make it to Gorey during the Easter break and with a bit of luck, maybe even solve this years holiday arrangements"
