Derry Clarke Cooks for You!

One of Irelands top Chefs, Derry Clarke of L'Ecrivain Restaurant in Lower Baggott St, Dublin 2 will put his talents on show on Thursday the 30th of September. Clarke a multi award winning chef will front the fundraiser for the Courtown RNLI Lifeboat Station and Gorey Chamber in the Ashdown Park Hotel. L'Ecrivain is listed amongst as one of Irelands Blue Book establishments and Derry Clarke, star of Screen and Kitchen has been at its helm since 1989. He has built a reputation for innovative cooking in an Irish/French style with fish a specialty at his premises deep in the heart of Georgian Dublin.

Derry Clarke cooks for you, will be a night to remember, with a strong emphasis on FUN and maybe even a little participation. This event will see Clarke share his experiences with everyone as he puts together a range of delicacies which will be sampled on the night.

This fundraiser will aid the RNLI which has been in Ireland since 1824 and had a local presence in Courtown Harbour since 1865. This local station is opened all year round and provides an essential service to the coastal community of North Wexford operating an inshore D class lifeboat. This fundraiser will also support Gorey Chamber which operates amongst other things, Gorey Tourist Office on the Main St runs a 365 day round information centre for the Tourism sector in addition to supporting Goreys Christmas Market and Summer Blooms.

Speaking from his office in Gorey Business Park, Chamber CEO, Dick White commented "This is a serious fundraiser which we hope will be well supported by the
