Gorey Business People really excelled themselves this Easter with their windows coming alive. The third staging of the annual Gorey Chamber sponsored Easter Window competition saw Rina Beechey's, Mrs Bees Healthy Option, Clonattin, win the competition for the second year in succession.

Speaking at the presentation of the Easter Window Perpetual Trophy, Gorey Chamber Executive commented "Our Business windows send out a message to all potential customers and create the first impression. Our annual competition attempts to capture the spirit of Easter and present the town and each business in the best possible light"

Two highly commended entries in this year's competition were Joannes Restaurant and Gibbons Florist, both on Main St.

Concluding, White noted "The standard was high among those that participated and we thank everyone who took the time and effort this year, they really did make the Easter Windows Come Alive"
