Press Release

DATE.

4th December 2011.

Halloween Window Winner.

Katie Daly's Takes the Prize.

The Gorey Halloween festival was marked by the business community with a window display competition sponsored by Gorey Chamber. With a title of "Halloween is Here" the competition which was open to all business saw over 40 entrants throughout the town.

With the standard so high, judges were put under pressure to decide on the winners. Speaking today Chamber Executive Dick White commented "The whole town really participated in Halloween this year with a very high standard of entrants. As part of a greater Gorey Halloween Festival we were pleased that the Halloween Trail, Festive Foods and our Halloween Is Here window competition added to the weekend."

The winner of the competition for 2011 was judged to be Katie Daly's on Main St, Gorey with Jack Dunne & Son, Sweet Moments and Gibbons Florists all being highly commended.

Concluding, White added "Our business windows are so important. This display competition is an effort to encourage everyone in business to use it to its full potential"
