Window Displays Added to Festival.

A La Campagne Comes First.

The third annual Gorey Market House Festival Window Display competition was judged over the August Bank Holiday weekend. Run in conjunction with the Craft and Design Festival this years competition had a theme of "Showcasing Your Business".

With a large entry, many business owners put on a great display which added to the colour of the town over the festival.

A La Campagne on Main St took the judges eye this year much to the delight of proprietors Stephen Flavin and Carole Thomas.

Other entrants who were highly commended for their displays were, House To Home, The Cod End and Gibbons Florists.

Speaking at the presentation ceremony, Chamber Executive, Dick White commented "We were pleased with this years competition and were delighted with the flair shown. It added greatly to a fine festival. Thanks to everyone on their participation"
